

I just got xm radio, and I love it. I think satellite radio should be allowed to thrive and give the local stations the competition and the challenge they need. Local radio has become stagnant and stale. If satellite radio can do a better job I say give it the chance to do so. Please reject NAB petition 04-160.